Rickard Shield 10th/11th March 2012

The 2012 Rickard Shield competition will be held over the weekend of the 10th/11th March.

The competition, now in its 9th year, is open to teams of 4-6 Explorer Scouts from the Scout County of Avon and requires no preparation .

The event is a night navigation exercise starting from around 1800 hrs (starts will be staggered) and will be situated within 12 miles from the centre of Bristol. Teams will be required to complete a route of approximately 11 miles whilst answering questions and completing challenges along the way. The 2011 event attracted nearly 230 entrants in around 44 teams.

As it is difficult to determine what time teams will complete the competition it is requested that you camp over at the base and arrange transport for the following morning. A presentation will be made to the winning team at 9.00 am.

The cost of entry is £2 per person, cheque to KESU. Please return the slip below by the 3rd February. Exact detail of the start time will be released at the end of February .

In the past this has been won by KESU!

What do I do next?

Simply complete this slip, returning it with your £2 by the 3rd of February to Katy Wheeler.
